NUMBE + 33. VOLUME XVI,

IRONTON, MO .. THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1883.

The St. Joe Lead Company (Bonne Terre) lost about $250,000 by fire last Saturday night. The buildings burned eovered an acre of ground, and were thrown out of employment.

The penitentiary workshops at Jef1 Tea Rose, 6 Verbenas (different colors), ferson City were fired by convicts last
2 Basket Plants, 1 Heliotrope (dark or light), Friday afternoon, and about $500,000 worth of property was destroyed-$80,000 of it belonging to the State. The convicts, under the lead of one Johnson, in for twelve years, mutinied and tried to escape during the confusion. Their efforts were foiled, how- 12 Heliotropes, different colors, ever, and they are still safe under lock and key. One or two subsequent attempts to again fire the premises were defeated.

Our brethren of the quill in the 14th district are lively, if not complimentary toward one another. A quinquangular warfare is now being waged between the Enterprise-Messenger, the Poplar Bluff Citizen, the New Madrid Record, the Gayoso Democrat, and the Ste. Genevieve Fair-Play. The spatting is spirited if not always elegant, and the points made full of acid and pepper-cayenne pepper. The latest edition of the E.-M. calls upon the F .-P. to define the raid "missills" used by the latter journal. We don't want to mix in the fight, but as an outsider, friendly to all parties, suggest that it might be properly used to designate a brick unskilfully wafted.

Supreme Court Relief.

Elsewhere we publish a communication from Hon. T. G, Foley in reference to his position upon the bill for relief of the Supreme Court. We are not a lawyer, and are of course very fallible on legal questions; but in our poor opinion his objections are not well taken. The Attorney-General has decided that the measure is constitutional; the Supreme Court has decided it to be constitutional. Mr. Foley knows this, and yet Mr. Foley thinks it unconstitutional. The Attorney-General and the Supreme Court may be wrong, and Mr. Foley right, but we hardly think he would be held responsible on that score if he were to give way to the former. As to the desire of his constituents, their cry is for relief from at the late election is no proof that a law accomplishing the desired object in a better way is obnoxious to them. As matters are now, it takes five years to get a final hearing in the Supreme Court. Will Mr. Foley contend that clean books from him. Delinquents must ship 35, range I east; thence south with relief is not demanded in this particular? We think not, and if the meas- have heard that in some parts of the ures devised are not so efficient as they might be, still a half loaf is better than no bread.
